Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good;" and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper — no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine it is unequaled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

A Reliable Remedy FOR CATARRH

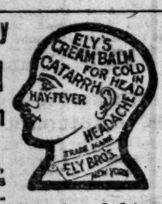
is quickly absorbed. Gives Relief at Once.



It cleanses, soothes, heals and protects the diseased membrane resulting from Catarrh and drives away a Cold in the Head quickly. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Full size 50 cts. at Druggists or by mail. Liquid Cream Balm for use in atomizers 75 cts.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend POISONING SUSPECTED.

Sheriff David Slusher, of Floyd county arrived in Richmond yesterday morning with a part of the body of J. Merrett Underwood, believing the man died of poison. The stomach will be chemically analyzed.

C. B. Bennett is now under arrest in Floyd, charged with the murder of Underwood, the theory circulated being that Bennett desired Underwood out of the way so that he might marry Mrs. Underwood.

Sheriff Slusher says Underwood and Bennett were apparently good friends, until the woman came into the case. They had worked together as contracting carpenters in the neighborhood of Davis, W Va. Underwood had a pretty wife, with whom, it is said he eloped, from West Virginia, two years ago. The parents are declared to have objected to his suit. The two men were much together and Bennett saw considerable of Mrs. Underwood. While traveling together near Floyd on October 27 Bennett it is alleged, gave Underwood some whisky and Underwood immediately became sick, dying several days later.

The case puzzled the family physician He thought Underwood was suffering from spinal meningitis and Mrs Underwood said she had seen her husband in that condition before.

Mrs. Underwood's haste to collect the money which Underwood had deposited in bank, which she applied for the day following his death, created suspicion. A few days later the neighborhood was startled by the announcement that Bennett had married Underwood's widow. A warrant has also been issued for the arrest of Mrs. Underwood.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

DUEL IN A PARLOR.

Charles W. Bennett and Otis H. Gooden Wednesday night called at the house of George W. Guard in Lawrenceburg, Ind., to see Mrs. Minnie Hess Cooper, a comely widow. A quarrel soon arose. Hanging on the wall in the parlor of the house were two sabres that had been used in the civil war by Mr. Guard's grandfather. Each man seized a sabre, and a sword fight ensued. The commotion in the parlor and the screams of Mrs. Cooper attracted the attention of Guard, who had retired. He partly dressed, ran into the room and found the two men whacking each other with the sabres. Bennett was proving a poor fencer and was getting by far the worst of the fight. He was bleeding profusely from cuts and slashes. Just as Guard entered Bennett fell on the floor, covered with blood. Gooden was in the act of running the sabre through his fallen opponent when Guard interfered and felled him with a heavy chair. The widow ran into the street, crying for help. Policeman Louis Wingerter arrived, and, after a struggle with Gooden, compelled him to surrender at the muzzle of a revolver. He was taken to jail. Dr. George F. Smith was summoned, and dressed the injuries of Bennett. There was one serious stab in his abdomen, which required eight stiches to close. Bennett is in a serious condition, but will recover unless blood poison develops. Mrs. Cooper declares that she will not countenance either man in the future.

THE UNITED STATES AND JAPAN

The official silence so long consistently maintained by Japan on the subject of the relations of the United States and Japan in connection with the persistent reports of friction, was broken yesterday in Tokio by a significant interview with Minister of Foreign Affairs Hayashi.

He prefaced his statement by expressing the hope that a sincere pronouncement by the Foreign minister of Japan and its publication would prevent further misrepresentations and finally result in discrediting those who are constantly circulating false and harmful reports. He spoke not only as a foreign minister, but as representing the sentiment of the entire cabinet and the public. He made no reference to the coming voyage of the American fleet to the Pacific.

Minister Hayashi then said that the relations between Japan and America were as smooth and cordial as ever, and the cause of civilization, as well as community of interest, demanded their lasting peace and friendship.

Minister Hayashi admitted that the emigration question was the most serious matter and was uppermost in the public mind, but he was positive that it would be settled without friction. Already it practically has been decided. The Japanese government proposes to control emigration in such a manner as to benefit Japan, and at the same time conform to the wishes of the American government, and is taking most active steps in this direction.

OSBORN-MALONEY MARRIAGE.

Martin Maloney and his eloping daughter Helen, together with her mother, her husband, Herbert Arthur Osborn, the Carberrys, Ritchies, and others in the case, fled to the millionaire's big country place at Spring Lake, N. J., yesterday evening, where, in the private chapel of the Maloneys, the religious ceremony uniting Osborn to his wife was to be performed. The Maloneys hope to have the marriage sanctified at their country home more easily than in Philadelphia. According to the canons of the church, the civil marriage with Osborn can be made legal in the eyes of the church by an archbishop blessing the union. A large dowry, it is said, will be settled upon Mrs. Osborn after the marriage is sanctified.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 8, 1907.

THE OVATION tendered Raymond Hitchcock, the actor at the Astor Theatre in New York, Wednesday night, is a sad sign of the spirit of the present age. The fact that a man who had for several weeks been hiding from justice and who had been subsequently indicted on several counts for crimes generally imputed to degenerates, and who is now walking about under a bond of $7,500, should have had the effrontery to appear on the stage of a theatre is all the index of his character that most people would desire. According to a dispatch from New York Hitchcock was greeted with tremendous cheering which is said to have lasted nine minutes. That a man arrested for paranoia, and arraigned on the testimony of little girls, should have had the temerity to even reappear on the streets is to be wondered at, while the forgiving nature of his wife whom he had so wronged, and who then appeared on the stage with him, passes all understanding. The scenes at the Astor Theatre are significant. There can be but one conclusion—the majority of those present were ready to apply a thick coat of whitewash. There were whited sepulchres among the ancients, and the spirit of the age shows that many desire to add to them. In connection with the above attention may be called to the fact that the trend to free such as make themselves amendable to law is apparent in other countries, as is shown in the trial of Nunzio Nasi, former Italian minister of public instruction, on the charge of falsifying documents and defrauding the State Treasury, which is now being conducted before the Senate sitting as a high court in Rome. Many Italians want the charge against the former minister quashed on general principles, and the services of regiments of soldiers are required to restrain such as desire to see a miscarriage of law.

THE INCREASE of crime in France has aroused a popular demand for the restoration of the death penalty, which has been practically abolished by the systematic commutation of the sentences of criminals condemned to death. Recently juries throughout the country have recommended having recourse to the guillotine as being the only means of stopping the atrocious murders which are of daily occurence in Paris and in the provinces. A popular vote taken by a local newspaper has resulted in 1,083,655 persons pronouncing in favor of restoring capital punishment, while 328,692 opposed it. The first law given the human race provided for the execution of murderers, but representatives of countries and States, who would be wiser than the Creator, have at times set that ordinance aside. In nearly every instance, however, they have been compelled to return to capital punishment. France will eventually be compelled to again use the guillotine.

THE almost world-wide movement to protect and establish forests has reached China, and the first Chinese school of forestry will soon be open at Moukden. The Chinese Empire is usually pointed out as the worst example among modern nations of forest destruction. The floods which are periodically poured down from the denuded mountains are destructive beyond comparison with any other country, and the want of forests is assigned as the chief cause. Wood is scarcer in China than in almost any other region in the world, although the country is well adapted to the growing of trees. In the establishment of a forest school the Chinese government gives evidence that it realizes the need of beginning its reforestation in a scientific manner.

DR. WILEY, the government chemist, has sent to the Department of Justice a long list of liquor men who, in his judgment, have violated the pure food law, and Attorney General Bonaparte will take up the cases immediately. Efforts to arrange with the liquor men for a test case have failed and it is now the intention to push the cases against all who have violated the law and it is more than probable that many of the brands of pure rye, pure corn juice, &c., will be shown to be base imitations of whisky.

From Washington.

Washington, Nov. 8.

War to the death is threatened against the President by one faction of the Oklahoma republicans, as a result of the Federal appointments announced from the White House yesterday. The men who expected the jobs, and their friends, howl and openly assert that they'll "get even" by instructing the delegates from Oklahoma for Cannon, or some other anti-administration presidential candidate. The sore heads claim that in the new officials the president was dominated entirely by the Rough Riders. Franz John Abernathy, and C. E. Hunter had the President's ear at every stage of the game, they assert.

Secretary Cortelyou said after today's cabinet meeting that he believed the financial situation to be considerably better than it has been. "We are doing all we can to help the west especially," he added, "but this is rather difficult to do, because no matter how much money we put out, it is almost no time before the cash finds its way into the big centers, and the biggest center being New York, most of it goes there."

The biggest kind of a political powwow is scheduled to take place at the White House Saturday, November 16, when the President and some of his New York State friends will take up the question of killing off Gov. Hughes. Timothy Woodruff, chairman of the republican State committee; Speaker James Wadsworth, jr., Wm. Barnes, of Albany, and possibly two or three others of the anti-Hughes camp will gather about the President and it is predicted they will "make medicine against the Governor." It is said the conference will decide upon the four delegates at large to be sent to the next national convention, and it is predicted that the governor will be side-tracked, although it has been the usual custom to select the man at Albany as one of the quartette. It is believed by many New Yorkers that the only way the President can prevent the New York delegation from going to Hughes is to take the nomination himself.

Announcement was made at the State Department today that David Jayne Hill, former Assistant Secretary of State, now minister to The Netherlands, would be promoted to be Ambassador to Germany, to succeed Charlemagne Tower, resigned.

W. I. Buchanan, who was chairman of the United States delegation to the last Pan-American conference, and member of the American delegation to the recent Hague conference, was today designated as representative of the United States at the Central American conference to be held in this city next week.

Announcement is made today of the election of Secretary of State Root as president of the Metropolitan Club, the exclusive social organization of the capital, numbering among its membership many of the most prominent men of the country, and a large contingent of the diplomatic corps.

Official announcment was made at the White House today that the President would review in Hampton Roads the battleship fleet, as it starts for the Pacific, on December 16. It is stated that he will leave here on the afternoon of the 15th.

The President has sent the following letter to the Attorney-General and the Secretary of the Interior: "My attention has been called to the dispatches in reference to the murder of Secret Service Agent Walker, while in the performance of his duty investigating coal land frauds in Colorado. I trust every effort will be exerted by your department to prosecute vigorously every violation of the land laws which Walker was investigating."

Sitting alone in her cell, sewing and knitting, trying to keep away thoughts of the terrible ordeal through which she must pass next Monday, Mrs. Anna M. Bradley awaits her trial for the killing of ex-Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah, in this city last December. The defense will probably be insanity.

The commission having in charge the Industrial Peace Foundation, to which President Roosevelt devoted the Nobel Prize, will meet tomorrow, to map out the scope of the work to be done and to stimulate, if possible, further donations, in order to bring the fund up to $1,000,000. Secretary Straus, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, will preside.

Among the 500 prominent democrats who will attend the W. J. Bryan dinner in this city on November 26 there will be one face missing. Lieut. Gov. Chanler, of New York, having something of a presidential boom himself, has declined. He has just replied that all his dates between now and the first of January are taken. It is commonly supposed that Bryan will formally announce himself at this dinner, as a candidate.

MAINTAINING HIGH PRICES

Despite a falling demand, brought on by the outlook of the financial situation, food dealers in Chicago and other cities are holding up prices to an exorbitant figure. Not alone are the packing houses responsible for the increased rates for eatables, but they are willingly aided by the grocery combinations including even the butchers and grocers in the retail field. They admit that where reductions are made, meat especially, they are made by handling inferior meats. An examination of the price list of grocers and meat dealers as compared with those of wholesale houses, indicates that the retailers are getting the best of the increasing prices and it is expected that the various associations of retailers are working to prevent any decline in prices.

AQUEDUCT BRIDGE.

The present condition of the roadway on the Aqueduct Bridge has been made the subject of complaint to Gen. Mackenzie, Chief of Engineers, United States army. The [illegible] made in person by Col. Osg[illegible], formerly assistant commissary gen[illegible], who said that most of the planks in the roadway are worn and that the repairs which have been made have not improved the condition. As the jurisdiction over this bridge is divided between the War Department and the District of Columbia, Gen. Mackenzie said that he would refer the matter to the District Commissioners, who have charge of the superstructure of the bridge, the army engineers having charge only of the piers.

A BIG MORTGAGE.

There was filed for record in the office of the clerk of the Norfolk court Wednesday a deed of trust from the John L. Roper Lumber Company by its vice president, F. S. Gannon and Assistant Secretary William B. Guynn to the Manhattan Trust Company, of New York, trustee, to secure $10,000,000 sinking fund gold bonds due May 1, 1956, without interest. The mortgage covers all the lumber mills and other property of the John L. Roper Lumber Company, operating extensive lumber mills in Virginia and North Carolina.

A small red tile in the floor of the Sixth street station, Washington, which since 1900 has served to mark the spot where President James A. Garfield was shot, has been missing since yesterday morning, and the inference is that the ubiquitous relic hunter has scored again in Washington.

Twenty-five of the 100 local unions of telegraphers in the United States have reported their vote to the national executive board. Twenty-four voted in favor of "suspension" of the strike.

News of the Day.

A terrible explosion of two cars of powder near Nesozari, Ariz., late yesterday killed ten men. The men killed were employees of the Montezuma Copper Company.

The government yesterday sold the frigate Saratoga to a Boston firm which will break her up for junk. The price was $3,212. The old frigate was built at Kittery, Me., in 1843.

The Borough Bank of Brooklyn was today declared solvent by the State bank examiners. The Borough Bank will open for business within the next few days. President Maxwell and Cashier Campbell will resign.

Democratic leaders in Baltimore are already discussing plans for eliminating the negro vote, and there is but little doubt that one of the fruits of Tuesday's democratic victory will be the disfranchising of the colored man.

A newspaper of Liege, Belgium, declared yesterday upon the authority of a high official that King Leopold may possibly abdicate rather than give into the Belgian parliament in the question of the Congo independent State.

The bodies of Mrs. Eliza Nugent and Michael Cantlin, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., an aged couple, who were married Wednesday night, were found dead in their room at the Hotel Weiss yesterday. They had been suffocated by escaping illuminating gas, having either blown it out or else accidentally turned it on.

The whipping post was resorted to in Canton, Miss., yesterday, Joe Shaw a negro, received 100 lashes on the back. The whipping was public, occuring in front of the mayor's office. Afterward the man was put on a train and told not to return. He had threatened to kill white men.

Ex-President Palma, of Cuba, is quoted as saying: "I do not hesitate to declare that it is a hundred times better for our beloved Cuba to be in a dependent political situation in which liberty is prevailing than in a republic independent of a sovereign, but discredited and ruined by blasting periodical civil strifes."

C. H. Lanihan, of Anaconda, Mont., a striking lineman, was sentenced by United States Judge Hunt, at Butte, yesterday, to four months in the county jail for an assault upon a nonunion lineman in the employ of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone Company. Matthew T. Plunkett, arraigned on the same charge, was sentenced to three months in jail.

By order of the board of directors of the institution the Woods National Bank, of San Antonio, Texas, suspended shortly after noon yesterday. W. W. Collier, president of the bank, said, later: "Our bank of directors took this action, in order to protect out depositors. Our board is practically solvent, and we expect every depositor will be paid in full just as soon as we can realize on our assets."

The union telegraphers, of Baltimore, at a meeting yesterday voted to "suspend" the strike and advised those who have been on strike to apply for reinstatement. Many followed this advice The Western Union officials says that they are considering the case of each applicant individually. The Washington striking telegraphers have not yet applied for reinstatement to their old jobs. They are awaiting more detailed instructions from the national executive committee at Chicago. According to officials of the two telegraph companies there are few vacancies in the office there and but few reinstatements are possible.

Petition in Bankruptcy.

New York, Nov. 8.—An involuntary petition in bankruptcy against Kressler & Co., bankers of No. 54 Wall street, was filed in the United States District Court today. The petitioners are the Cripple Creek Central Railroad Company of Maine, with claims of $100,000 and upwards for deposits; James F. White & Co., of this city, for drafts purchased for $1,000 and the Schweizerische Bankverein of Switzerland for bills of exchange to the amount of $100,000 and upwards. It is claimed that the bankers committed the act of bankruptcy on October 30 when they made a general assignment to William Williams. A tem-porary receiver is asked.

The Success Magazine for November, which has been received from its publishers in New York, is most excellent. It opens with amazing disclosures of facts in the life of Thomas W. Lawson. "Drugging a Race" tells how Great Britain fastened the opium curse on China. "Our own Northwest" predicts the site of one of America's greatest cities. "What this busy world is doing," "The Sanitary House," "Her Little Errors" and "The Well Dressed Man" are among other interesting articles. The fiction is good, and the art feature of this issue is a double page reproduction of famous modern paintings of mothers and children.

A Hard Debt to Pay

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of my dear sister, ROSE ELLA HAYES, who died November 8, 1903—four years ago today.

Ella is gone, but not forgotten,
Never shall her memory fade;
Sweetest thoughts forever linger
Around the grave where Ella is laid.

SISTER.

Virginia News.

Harry Douglas Pleasants, for 12 years prominently associated with the lumber business of Richmond, died yesterday of typhoid fever.

Miss Bessie Castle, daughter of William S. Castle, of Leesburg, was married yesterday afternoon, at the bride's home, to Garland Edgar Thomas, of Brownsville, Md.

Yesterday evening in the home of the bride in Richmond, Miss Kate Cole Bidgood, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Joseph V. Bidgood, became the wife of Everard Neale, jr., of Fairfax county.

The Court of Appeals will convene in Richmond next Tuesday, and the docket, though comparatively short, contains a number of interesting and important cases. The Attorney-General is busy preparing the Commonwealth cases to be tried at the term.

Mr. Alexander McCormick, postmaster at Berryville, and one of the leading business men of the town, died Wednesday night, after an illness of two months, aged sixty years. He was appointed postmaster at Berryville nine years ago by President McKinley.

In the First Presbyterian Church at Lynchburg last night there was a double wedding. Thomas Edward Morrell was married to Miss Hallie Clark Howard, and Kiat Thornton Ford to Miss Annie Carter Howard. Rev. James A. McMurray, pastor of Floyd Street Presbyterian Church, of which the brides are members, officiated.

GIRL BROKE ENGAGEMENT.

Justin Percival, of Lynchburg, Va., who announced that he had been searching in vain for Mrs. Virginia Peyton Knight Howe, his fiancee, who had strangely vanished, is advised by his friends not to seek information concerning her from her sister, Mrs. Henry Walter Wilmot, of New York.

Mrs. Wilmot, who is a beautiful young woman, was seen in her apartments in New York yesterday, and she not only declared the report of her sister's disappearance absurd, but added a few remarks that should not cause the heir of Percival Island to blush with pleasure. She declared there no longer existed an engagement to marry between Mrs. Howe and Mr. Percival, who was divorced from his first wife, Merle Louise Wells Percival, of a well-known Virginia family, at the October term of court in Jacksonville, Fla.

"My sister," said Mrs. Wilmot, trembling with indignation, "broke her engagement with Mr. Percival for good and sufficient reasons several weeks ago. I have read the report of my sister's disappearance and knew that it was caused to be published by Mr. Percival purely to injure Virginia. It was pretty mean spite that prompted him to flaunt the name of my sister before the public and probably with the further desire of having his picture published in the papers."

Mr. Percival's story of the vanishing of his fiancee was very romantic. He and Mrs. Howe had been sweethearts in Virginia since childhood, but they drifted apart and each was married in the same month. By another coincidence they were divorced in the same month. They were to have been married October 31, in the "Little Church Around the Corner." The heir of Percival Island declared that he was fully prepared for the wedding on the day set, but that his fiancee failed to appear.—This does not agree with Mrs. Wilmot's statement regarding the broken engagement. Mrs. Howe was divorced on October 30 from J. Wilson Howe, of Washington. Her sister refused to say where she is, as she does not wish to have her annoyed.

A dispatch from Chicago says Mrs. Virginia Peyton Knight-Howe, a Virginia society belle, who left New York city mysteriously a day after sye was divorced from her husband and an hour before it was said she was to have become the bride of Justin Percival, the heir to Percival's Island, at Lynchburg, was found in Chicago yesterday at the quarters of the Young Woman's Christain Association. She had left New York without notification to her family and without the knowledge of the man who was at the moment dressing for the wedding. She says her engagement to Percival is over.

A dispatch from Lynchburg says Justin Percival, who is figuring in a sensational search for Mrs. Virginia Knight-Howe in New York City, according to some of the metropolitan papers, is a native of this city. His father is a supernumerary on the police force, and as such inspector of bridges in the city. The statement that he is an heir to Percival's Island is a myth.

HANGED HIMSELF IN JAIL.

The lifeless body of Harry G. Washabaugh, bigamist, was found hanging in his cell at the county jail at Washington, Pa., yesterday at daybreak. He had hanged himself from a hook with his handkerchief. Washabaugh, who was a brakesman, having a wife and two children at Washington, married Miss Ida Briggs, of Houston, a few days ago, saying he was single. When they returned from their wedding journey the real Mrs. Washabaugh had the groom arrested. On Wednesday he sent for her to come to the jail. She went, but refused to do anything to aid him. Washabaugh threatened to kill himself if she did not help him to get out of jail, but the wife went away laughing. In the night the bigamist made good his threat.

JAMESTOWN BONDS.

Federal Judge Waddill in Norfolk yesterday denied the application for an injunction restraining the disposition, except under order of court, of the $200,000 unnegotiated bonds of the Jamestown Exposition Company's original $400,000 bond issue, on the ground that there was no necessity at this time for such an injunction. This leaves the bankers' committee, in whose hands the $200,000 in bonds remain, to negotiate them or dispose of the same unrestrained by court order. The court held that the notice and process of his suit sufficiently protected John Monk, the plaintiff, who, holding an alleged claim of $70,000 against the exposition on contract building work, sought to enjoin the $200,000 in bonds.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 8.—There was a decided improvement in the stock market conditions this morning that was reflected in advances ranging fractions to over one point in a majority of the stocks. The feature of the forenoon market aside from strength in the general list, was the weakness in Northern American, which dropped from 42 to 37. At midday another buying movement was in progress which caused a recovery of the losses made on the reaction, and in many cases stocks were at the highest range of the day.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Next Legislature.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Nov. 8.—Democratic State Chairman Ellyson today received final reports from doubtful legislative districts. Patrick county elects a democrat in the place of the incumbent House republican. Bristol city and Washington county jointly returned one democrat and one republican. The democrats have 86 members in the House, a loss of two. The complexion of the Senate remains unchanged, 34 democrats and 6 republicans.

The Lusitania's Run.

New York, Nov. 8.—A new record of four days, eighteen hours and forty minutes for the Queenstown-Sandy Hook run, was set up today when the big Cunard liner Lusitania reached this port after a run of one hour and fourteen minutes better than her previous world's record.

In addition to the speed record the Lusitania added one mile to the best day's run by making 618 knots on November 6, and increasing her average hourly speed from an even 24 knots to 24 35 knots.

The big Cunarder also broke the record for the great amount of gold carried by a single steamer, bringing over $12,000,000 for the relief of the financial situation. Heavy weather throughout the voyage interfered considerably with the speed of the vessel, strong winds, heavy squalls and mountainous seas preventing what would undoubtedly have been a better record-breaking performance.

Conditions in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 8.—Strange as it may seem that the Stolypin ministry should seek to ally itself with the Russian radicals, it is just such an outcome that seems likely to follow the opening of the new Douma.

The ministers will make the first overtures and the general impression is that the radicals will be willing to enter into the combination—not, of course, out of any good will toward Stolypin or his followers, but for their own advantage.

The ministry has been forced to look in queer quarters for friends to protect itself against the Asolutists who will certainly demand Stolypin's resignation and a programme of reaction and wholesale executions under a stronger premier.

The ministers are anxious to hold their portfolios even though they may have to get the revolutionists' help to do it, and the radicals prefer inefficiency under Stolypin to the iron-headed reaction urged by the absolutists.

Boy Burned to Death.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Fire early this morning consumed a flat building at 399 west Fourteenth street. A boy lost his life and two women were so seriously injured that they are not expected to live. The flames started in a tailor shop on the second floor. When the department arrived the entire building was burning. In a third story window, framed in flames, a youth named Goellett appeared. Ladders were run up through the sheets of fire, but before they could reach him, the lad sank backward. Two women leaped from third-story windows to escape the flames. Fourteen families were made homeless.

Trouble at Oberammergau.

Oberammergau, Bavaria, Nov. 8.—War is raging over the selection of an actor to play the part of the "Prince of Peace" in the Passion Play in 1910. Politics is at the bottom of the dispute. A priest leads one party, and an actor, who has twice before appeared in the Saviour's role, is at the head of the other, and so savage have the riots become that troops have been summoned from Munich to aid the local authorities in maintaining order. The populace is divided into hostile camps, and such bitterness exists that it is doubtful if the 1910 play will take place at all.

Suffering from Dog Bites.

New York, Nov. 8.—Eight soldiers from Fort Hamilton are in the hospital as the result of bites inflicted by what is believed to be a mad dog early today. Several of the victims are in a serious condition.

In some way the dog got into the quarters of Company Eighty-four just before daylight and bit several men. Then it ran through the works bitting men right and left. It was finally chased into some underbrush and shot.

Emperior William's Condition.

Berlin, Nov. 8.—Kaiser Wilhelm is a much sicker man than his physicians, relatives or close political advisers will admit. News has leaked out that arrangements have been completed for him to spend the winter in southern Europe. Some plausible explanation will probably be given for this programme, but the real reason is that the three throat specialists who have attended him say it will be dangerous for him to remain during the season in the comparatively rigerous German climate.

Mayor Johnson for President.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 8.—Mayor Tom Loftus Johnson has waved aside the crown. He has been offered the Presidential nomination by the St. Louis Democratic Club, and by Kentucky, his native State. Even if the two offers did not guarantee nomination and election Burton's conquerer appreciated them, but waved them aside. "I've got a better job," he said with a laugh as he denied presidential ambitions.

Rescued from Burning House.

New York, Nov. 8.—When two Italians, living at 32 Rivington street, discovered a fire in a building where probably two people were sleeping early today, they packed up their goods and moved out, but never thought of arousing any one else. Policemen entered the building and succeeded in removing all the inmates, some of whom were more or less injured.

Secretary Taft.

Manila, Nov. 8.—Secretary Taft sailed from Manila for Vladivostok today. He had not intended to leave until tomorrow, but found he could delay no longer without danger of missing the trans-Siberian train he wishes to take November 19 for St. Petersburg. A tremendous demonstration was made in his honor by the natives as his ship left the harbor.

Plead Guilty.

New York, Nov. 8.—A sad echo of the recent slump in the stock market was heard today when George Brouwer, former confidential manager of James N. Oliphant & Co., Broad street stock brokers, pleaded guilty a charge of grand larceny in the first degree growing out of speculations from his employers. Brouwer was arrested on October 12 charged with stealing $90,000 from Oliphant & Co. At the request of District Attorney Jerome Judge Rosalski postponed sentence for a week and remanded Brouwer to the Tombs.

Farmer Burned to Death.

Uhrichville, O., Nov. 6.—Unable to help him, the family of Jacob Reitz, farmer, saw him burn to death in his barn. Reitz went to the hay mow with lantern. It overturned and set the hay on fire.

Reitz tried to escape through the small window, but his body struck fast and with his head and arms out of the window Reitz burned to death, the glare of the burning building showing his death agonies to his family. His wife fainted at the sight.

Heavy Damages Claimed.

Boston, Nov. 8.—The heaviest damages ever demanded in a New England court as a result of an automobile accident are involved in a suit being tried today against Judge Lockwood Honore, of Chicago, a brother of Mrs. Potter Palmer. The plaintiffs, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Dugan, sue for an aggregate of $75,000 for injuries received by Mrs. Dugan when her horse ran away, as the result, it is alleged, of being frightened by Judge Honore's motor in 1903.

Wanted to go Back to Jail.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Because she prefers the attractions of the Cook county jail to returning to the little town of Bridgeport, Wis., Miss Rose Haines, who was arrested on a charge of stealing jewels, is puzzling Judge Gibbons and other officials. Miss Haines had pleaded guilty to two charges of grand larceny and had been paroled to a Wisconsin relative when she made her startling request. "Can't I go back to jail?" she asked. "It is really a pleasant home like place."

Bank Robbed.

Florence, Ky., Nov. 8.—Five handsomely dressed cracksmen dashed into Florence early today in a red automobile, dynamited the safe in the Florence Deposit Bank, partially wrecked the building and after firing a volley at citizens, who rushed to the bank, gave them the laugh and sped down the pike made famous in John Uri Lloyd's novel "Stringtown on the Pike."

Six alleged murderers and three other desperate character sawed their way through steel bars at the Madison county jail at Canton, Miss., early today and escaped.

SCHOOL BOARD.

At the monthly meeting of the City School Board held last night all the members and the superintendent were present and the chairman, Capt. Herbert Bryant, presided.

Mr. Yates reported that some minor work had been done on the buildings since the last meeting and that the trees around Washington building had been trimmed.

Mr. L. H. Thompson, from the committee on studies and discipline, made a report in reference to the hours of opening and closing the schools. The report recommended that the colored schools be opened at 8.30 and closed at 11.30 a. m. and reopened at 1.30 and closed at 3.30 p. m., and that the hours for opening and closing the white schools remain unchanged.

Mr. Bradshaw said he had talked with several patrons of the schools and with some of the teachers who were of the opinion that one hour recess was sufficient. He offered as a substitute for the report that the white schools should open at 9 a. m., close at 12, and reopen at 1 p. m. and close at 3, and that the colored schools should open at 9 and close at 12.30 and reopen at 1.30 and close at 3.30.

Messrs. Ramsay and Yates favored the substitute, and said many patrons of the schools wanted one hour only recess.

Mr. Thompson opposed the change, and said when an attempt was made some time ago to contract the recess he had spoken against such a procedure, and at that time had given his reasons. Teachers, he said, had often suggested the change, but he believed it would prove impractical to make locomotives out of children by allowing them barely time to go home, eat their dinners and return to school. Children naturally enjoyed a half hour's recreation before resuming their studies. Besides, there are always more or less duties for boys to perform at home from 12 to 1 o'clock in the way of running of errands, which were expected of the boys of most parents, while many were compelled to carry dinner to their fathers at depots, glass factories and other places where they are employed.

The superintendent said he had been in favor of a shorter recess; no teacher, however, had spoken to him on the subject, but some of the patrons had expressed the hope that the noon recess would be shortened.

The substitute was adopted, the change to go into effect on Monday, Nov. 18.

Two bills for repairs were ordered to be paid.

The superintendent stated that none of the teachers had said anything to him about an increase in salary, but that under the board's rules four of the teachers were entitled to an advance of $50 per year, and he thought there would be sufficient money in the treasury to pay this increase.

Mr. Ramsay thought that action should not be taken till the board heard from council in reference to the request for an additional appropriation.

Mr. A. H. Thomson favored a joint meeting with the board and the council committees on schools and finance.

After further debate the matter went over till council should act on the board's application.

The superintendent reported that the schools were all in good working order and that the new teachers were doing well.

Mr. Yates reported that he had given permission to have electric lights put in the principal's room in Washington building, without cost to the board, for the night school.

Mr. A. H. Thomson wanted to know the character of the boys attending the night school. He did not want the building which the board kept in repair to be used by undeserving boys or by those who could go to school in the daytime if they chose to do so.

It was explained by the superintendent and clerk that the school was attended by well-behaved boys who worked during the day, and Mr. Thomson expressed his satisfaction.

Mr. Yates then called up his resolution to so amend the by-laws as to permit non-residents who paid a license to do business in the city to send their children to the public schools.

Mr. Yates urged the change, and Mr. Carter favored the granting of the request of a non-resident applicant to admit his children.

After considerable debate, during which the various laws and rules on the subject were read, the resolution of Mr. Yates was lost, and the board adjourned.

Mrs. W. W. Williamson, of Warrenton, was made second vice president; Mrs. E. C. Matthews, Leesburg, third vice president; and Mrs. A. H. Thomson, of Alexandria, recording secretary. The first meeting in connection with the organization of the union was held in Central Church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Joseph R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, of this city, presided.

MR. BRYAN'S LECTURE.

Tickets of admission to the Opera House on the night of the 22d instant, when Mr. W. J. Bryan will deliver a lecture, are being disposed of rapidly, and those who may desire reserved seats on that occasion should secure them at once, as the management will see that all who have purchased tickets previous to the night of the lecture are seated before any more are disposed of that night. As is known, the proceeds of the lecture will be devoted toward furnishing the George R. Hill Memorial Hall, adjoining the M. E. Church South, now nearing completion.

Alexandria Council of the Junior Order of American Mechanics this afternoon presented a United States flag to the school trustees of Brentsville. Mr. John R. Trimyer delivered the presentation address.

DEATH OF JOHN W. BURKE.

Mr. John Woolfolk Burke, one of the oldest and most prominent residents of this city, died at his home on Wilkes street, between Fairfax and Lee, at eleven o'clock this morning. The deceased was in the 83d year of his age, having been born on January 21st, 1825. He had during the past few weeks been confined to his home, burdened with the weight of years, and no longer able to move about the city as had been his wont up to a short time ago. Mr. Burke leaves a widow (who was Miss Martha Jefferson Trist, daughter of the late N. P. T. Trist) and six children—Messrs. Julian T., Harry and Edmund, and Miss Fannie, Miss Virginia and Mrs. Charles B. Eddy. The deceased had been married twice, his first wife having been Miss Julia Thompson, of Baltimore.

Mr. Burke was a native of Caroline county, and removed to Alexandria in 1848 and forming a copartnership with Col. Arthur Herbert engaged in the brokerage and banking business at the northeast corner of Prince and Lee streets in 1853. The firm later removed to the northwest corner of Prince and Fairfax streets, and in 1860 occupied the building now used by the Western Union Telegraph Company, on the north side of King street, near Fairfax. During the four years' civil war, Colonel Herbert being in the Confederate army, the banking house was closed, but was reopened at the northeast corner of King and Lee streets at the close of hostilities. In the early seventies the firm purchased the building at the southeast corner of King and Fairfax streets and erected a handsome banking house. A few years ago this structure was demolished and the present modern banking house erected on its site. Mr. Burke was associated with Colonel Herbert till 1899, when the latter retired from business, but the firm name remained unchanged. Mr. Burke was a successful business man, and the firm of which he was a member rode out all the financial storms that have passed over the country since its formation. Even during the dark period of the civil war it proved to be a safe haven for all having business with it. The deceased inherited true business instincts, and while conservative and thoughtful, required the same responsibility from others that he ever manifested toward those with whom he had relations, and during his long life he justly enjoyed the confidence of all who knew him. Kind and friendly-disposed toward all, he unostentatiously performed many substantial acts of kindness, and those who knew him best could tell of many instances where his responses were instant in cases where immediate action was needed. Mr. Burke was of a domestic nature, and spent most of his leisure hours with his family. He seldom figured in public or political affairs except when some spontaneous call was made upon him. About twenty years ago he was a members of the Board of Alderman from the First ward and he also represented that ward in the City School Board. The deceased was thoughtful, a close reader and practical in his observations. Less than a year ago his son, N. P. T. Burke, was stricken with apoplexy, and his death soon followed, and now before the keen edge of that sad affliction has been dulled by time, and while still in the habiliments of mourning, his family has again been stricken by his death of a kind and indulgent husband and father. They have the sincere sympathy of their many friends and acquaintances.

The funeral will take place from Christ Church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elvira Hill took place this morning from St. Mary's Church, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. Bulla and the pallbearers were Messrs. Barry and Callaghan, of Washington, and Messrs. Samuel Wade and Charles Tennesson, of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, and Messrs. J. R. ACCUSED DISMISSED.

Officer Henderson and Special Officer Carter last night arrested Allen Bell and Eugene Bell, young colored men, against whom they urged a number of charges—vagrancy, destroying property, indecent conduct, impudence toward a white woman, defiance of policemen and disorderly conduct. The darkeys denied all the allegations, and asserted that their arrest was due to prejudice on the part of the officers. The latter failed to bring postive evidence to substantiate either of the charges brought against the accused and Justice Caton discharged the prisoner, but suggested to the officers that should they secured sufficient testimony the darkeys could be rearrested.

DIED FROM HIS WOUND.

W. J. Hopkins died at Wise, Va., yesterday as a result of a shooting affray at the Wise polling place during Tuesday's election. W. S. Skeen, who did the shooting, is at large, and so far all efforts of the officers to locate him have been futile. A quarrel between the two men, who were working together at the polls, arose over Hopkins having challenged a prospective voter, Skeen left the polls and returned five minutes later with a double-barreled shotgun, with which he shot Hopkins as the latter pulled the trigger of his pistol.

Hopkins was shot in the breast, and he sank down mortally wounded. Skeen also sustained a serious wound. In the excitement Skeen escaped by the assistance of friends.

Hopkins leaves a wife and several children. Both men were prominently connected in southwest Virginia and well-known in Wise county politics. Efforts will be made to have Gov. Swanson offer a reward for the apprehension of Skeen, and this will be supplemented by the dead man's friends.

It is reported that Skeen is merely in temporary hiding, and will surrender himself to the authorities as soon as the excitement attending the tragedy subsides.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of hapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at all drug stores.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it with utter hesitation even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloreform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by E. S Leadbeater & Sons.
